

STUDENT CREED

I am developing myself in a positive manner and avoiding anything that would reduce my mental growth or my physical health.

I'm developing self-discipline, bringing out the best in my self and others.

I am using what I learn in class constructively and defensively, helping myself and my fellow human beings and never being abusive or offensive.